REAL ESTATE—The democratic and

MEET BURNED TO DEATH—The Calcutta Advertiser states that an old man, named Groom, residing at Milltown, for some time confined to his house by reason of infirmities, during this winter a fire had his cotton morning gown or night cap catch fire from the stove which he carelessly burnt him that he died in a few hours after. The screams of a little girl, the daughter of the old man, who was taken to the house, besides the old man's cries for attention of a man passing by, brought the police to the house and the house was saved from destruction.

The Liberator's policy, that George Lewis is carrying out, will restore him in the eyes of his colleagues in the Know Nothing Councils of this State to the position he occupied in the Convention of 1845, as the R. F. F. President. It is to be held in Philadelphia on the 22d of February. The object of it is to show that we have little interest in our old claims, but to show how we are going on.—N. Y. Tribune

Verily Mine.—We have attention to Mr. Burrows's advertisement for a Class for practical men in Vocal Music, to be formed this (Friday) evening, at the Baptist Church, on Centre Street. It is intended for those who are fond of music, and will be of much advantage to many of our church and others, in the way of practice.
